

CAMPUS MASTER PLAN

University of Dayton

Focus Group

Focus Group 10 Alumni, LLI

A focus group made up of six individuals including UD Alumni and members of the Lifelong Learning Initiative met with Burt Hill on February 8, 2007 to discuss the UD campus and its future growth. The group discussed the campus master planning process and issues surrounding the future physical growth of campus.

Topics discussed included:

- Pedestrian/bike path through campus to the river
- LLI site – close to campus where participants can interact w/UD students
- Housing for retiring faculty/staff
- Facility for UD/community events
- Focus on quality
- Address safety

