

CAMPUS MASTER PLAN

University of Dayton

Focus Group

Focus Group 13 Educational Learning Center

A focus group made up of approximately 40 members of the Educational Leadership Council met with Burt Hill on February 20, 2007 to discuss the UD campus and its future growth. The group discussed the campus master planning process and issues surrounding the future physical growth of campus.

Topics discussed included:

- Bold statements in developing master plan
- Giving up elements for others to occur
- Expanding through West Campus
- Sacred space that reflects UD's Catholic/Marianist campus
- Challenging current and past thought with upcoming master plan
- Integration of master plan with mission and Strategic Plan of UD
- Sharing of master planning process/principles with UD community
- Physical and perceived edges between UD and surrounding community

