University of Dayton

Focus Group

School of Law, Graduate Programs, School Business Administration (graduate), School of Education & Allied Professions (graduate), Library & Information Services

A focus group made up of ten representatives from the School of Law, Graduate Programs, School of Business Administration, School of Education & Allied Professions, and Library & Information Science met with Burt Hill on February 7, 2007. The group discussed their likes and dislikes about the UD campus and provided thoughts on the future development of the UD campus. Through a visual listening exercise, the group determined what they like about campus and what they'd like to change.

This group's focus included:

- Parking for part-time graduate students during evening hours
- Housing for graduate and international students
- Graduate student center with easy accessibility for commuters
- Integration/collaboration between graduate and undergraduate students
