

CAMPUS MASTER PLAN

University of Dayton

Focus Group

Focus Group 8

Campus Ministry, Rector, Fitz Center, Marianist Fellows, Marianists

A focus group of five representatives from Campus Ministry, the Fitz Center, and the Marianists met with Burt Hill on February, 2007 to discuss the present and future needs of the UD campus. The group discussed the current master planning process, and provided insight on UD's Marianist tradition and how it can influence this process.

Some of the topics discussed with this group included:

- Wayfinding/signage in and around campus
- Organic structure of campus
- Marianist art throughout the campus landscape
- Physical growth of campus to the river
- The River as part of campus
- Need for larger worship space
- Need to retain parish in UD area

